Office: Assemblyman Matt Haney
Classification: Field Representative
Monthly Salary Range: $5,417 - $8,159 monthly
Location: San Francisco, CA
Posted: June 22, 2026

Assemblymember Matt Haney is seeking a Field Representative to serve in the San Francisco District Office. The ideal candidate will have familiarity with issues impacting Assembly District 17, and strong oral and written communication skills.

Under the direction of the District Director, the Field Representative will assist with constituent communications and community outreach efforts while serving as a representative of the Assemblymember throughout the district. The position will support outreach initiatives, promote district events and resources, and help strengthen the office's constituent engagement.

Responsibilities include managing the office's public inbox, social media platforms, and website content; developing and implementing communications and outreach strategies; creating content that highlights the Assemblymember's legislative, budget, and district priorities; and drafting constituent correspondence, talking points, press materials, newsletters.

The Field Representative will represent the Assemblymember at community meetings, events; develop and maintain relationships with constituents, community organizations, and local leaders; assist with event planning and execution; conduct research on district issues; and support other district office operations as assigned.

The position requires a flexible schedule, including evenings and weekends as needed, and may require occasional travel throughout the district to support community events, press, and outreach activities.

The Assembly salary range for this position is $5,417 - $8,159 monthly. Final compensation is commensurate with experience. Significant relevant experience is required to reach the higher end of the salary range.
