GOVERNOR'S REORGANIZATION PLANS—2002

No. 1—An act to amend Sections 12800 and 12803 of, to add Section 12813 to, and to add Part 8.5 (commencing with Section 15550) to Division 3 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, to amend Sections 50 and 1141 of, and to add Sections 18.5 and 19.5 to, the Labor Code, and to amend Section 301 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to governmental reorganization.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

State government reorganization: labor and workforce development. Existing law establishes in state government the Department of Industrial Relations and the Agricultural Labor Relations Board. Existing law establishesthe Employment Development Department in the California Health and Human Services Agency. An executive order of the Governor establishes the CaliforniaWorkforce Investment Board. Existing law does not provide for the establishment of a Labor and Workforce Development Agency in state government. This bill would create a Labor and Workforce Development Agency in state government consisting of the Department of Industrial Relations. the Employment Development Department, the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, and the California Workforce Investment Board. The agency would be under the supervision of the Secretary of Labor and Workforce Development who would be appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by the Senate. The bill would make conforming and related changes.

PREPRINT ASSEMBLY BILLS—2001–02 SESSION

Preprint A.B. No. 1—Papan.

An act to amend Section 1280 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

Bill No.as introduced. Papan. General Subject:Unemployment insurance: benefits. Under existing law, the weekly unemployment compensation benefit for new claims filed prior to January 1, 2002, for an individual whose highest wages in the quarter of his or her base period exceeded a specified amount, is 39% of those wages divided by 13, but may not exceed $230. Under existing law, for new claims filed with an effective date after January 1, 2002, and prior to January 1, 2003, the weekly benefit is increased, for an individual whose highest wages in the quarter of his or her base period exceed a specified amount, to a certain percentage of those wages divided by 13, and the maximum weekly benefit is increased, to $330. This bill would make those increased benefits applicable to new claims filed with an effective date after July 1, 2001, and prior to January 1, 2003. Because this provision would increase the amount of unemployment compensation paid, it would increase the amount payable from the Unemployment Fund, a continuously appropriated special fund, and thereby would make an appropriation.This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.NPU RN0020815 PU 01 SB 40 99 PU RN0115476 PU 01 CHP 409N Vote: 2/3. Appropriation: yes. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: no.

Preprint A.B. No. 2—Papan.

An act to amend Sections 1250.410 and 1255.060 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to eminent domain.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

Bill No.as introduced. Papan. General Subject:Eminent domain proceedings. Existing law provides that in determining the litigation expenses to be awarded to the defendant as costs in an eminent domain proceeding, the court shall consider the amount of an offer made by the plaintiff to acquire the property, as specified. This bill would also require the court to consider any deposit made by the plaintiff with the State Treasury to cover the probable compensation to be awarded to the defendant. Existing law provides that in the trial of the issue of compensation in an eminent domain proceeding, a witness may not be impeached by reference to any appraisal report, written statement and summary of an appraisal, or other statements made in connection with a deposit or withdrawal of a deposit of probable compensation, nor may the report or statement and summary be considered an admission of any party. This bill would instead provide that in the trial of the issue of compensation, an appraisal report, written statement and summary of an appraisal, or other statement made in connection with a deposit or withdrawal of a deposit may not be considered to be an admission of any party. However, the bill would also provide that if the person who prepared the report, statement and summary, or other statement is called at trial to give an opinion as to compensation, the report, statement and summary, or other statement may be used for impeachment of the witness. Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no. State-mandated local program: no.

Preprint A.B. No. 3—Leonard.

An act to add Section 152 to the Penal Code, relating to unattended personal property.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

Bill No.as introduced. Leonard. General Subject:Unattended personal property. Existing law regulates the possession of personal property, but provides no criminal sanction for leaving personal property unattended in a public place. This bill would make it an infraction for a person to leave personal property outside of his or her immediate physical control in a public place.075The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement. This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason. Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: yes.N(DF 75, Revised 08/94)N

Preprint A.B. No. 4—Wyman.

An act to amend Section 19775.17 of, and to add Section 19775.18 to, the Government Code, to amend Sections 389, 395, 395.01, 399, and 399.5 of, and to add Section 395.09 to, the Military and Veterans Code, and to add Sections 17053.67 and 23667 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to military service, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

Bill No.as introduced. Wyman. General Subject:Military service: benefits. (1) Existing law provides that a state employee who, as a member of the California National Guard or a United States military reserve organization, is ordered to active duty by either a Presidential determination that it is necessary to augment the active forces for any operational mission, or in time of national emergency declared by the President or otherwise authorized by law, shall receive for the duration of the event, for a period not to exceed 180 days, as part of his or her compensation the difference between the amount of his or her military pay and the amount the person would have received as a state employee, and all benefits he or she would have received had he or she not served on active duty, as specified.NPU 97 SB 1365 97 PU RN0123373NThis bill would provide that a state employee, who is a member of the California National Guard or a United States Military Reserve organization shall receive these benefits for a period not to exceed 365 days if he or she is ordered to serve on active duty on or after September 11, 2001, as a result of Operation Enduring Freedom or any successor military action. (2) Under existing law, a public employee who is a member of the reserve corps of the armed forces of the United States, or of the National Guard or the Naval Militia, is entitled to a temporary military leave of absence for active military training, inactive duty training, encampment, naval cruises, special exercises, or similar activities for a period of 180 calendar days, if certain requirements are met. Existing law also grants an absolute right to the employee to be restored to his or her former office or position.NPU RN0017355 PU 99 SB 1950 97 PU RN0103952NThis bill would instead allow temporary military leave for a period of 365 calendar days. This bill would instead allow also grant additional rights to an employee in a public safety or emergency services office with respect to being restored to his or her former office or position. (3) Existing law entitled any state legislative, executive, or judicial branch officer or employee, including civil service employees, who, as a member of the California National Guard or a United States military reserve organization, was called up to active duty as a result of the Iraq-Kuwait or Bosnia crisis to receive, while on active duty not to exceed 180 calendar days, as part of his or her compensation, the difference between the amount of his or her military pay and allowances and the amount the officer would have received as a state officer or employee, including any merit raises that would otherwise have been granted during the time the individual was on active duty. Existing law also entitled an officer or employee to receive, for 180 calendar days, all benefits that he or she would have received had he or she not been called to active duty, unless the benefits were prohibited or limited by vendor contract. This bill would entitle any state legislative, executive, or judicial branch officer or employee, including a civil service employee, who, as a member of the California National Guard or a United States military reserve organization, is called up to active duty as a result of Operation Enduring Freedom or any successor military action on or after September 11, 2001, to receive similar compensation and benefits. This bill would reduce these benefits by the maximum allowable benefit under the federal Ready Reserve Mobilization Income Insurance Program or a successor federal program, for certain employees eligible to participate in that program. This bill would apply these provisions to active duty served as a result of Operation Enduring Freedom or any successor military action.NPU 97 CHP

780N (4) Existing law prohibited eviction or distress, except upon leave of court, with respect to premises, rented at or below a certain monthly rate, that are occupied by the spouse, children, or other dependents of reservists called into active duty as a result of the Iraq-Kuwait crisis. Existing law also requires the court to issue stay for a specified period or make other prescribed orders, unless the court found that the ability to pay the rent was affected by that military service. Existing law made knowing eviction or distress, except as provided in the bill, a misdemeanor. The bill would provide the same relief for reservists called to active duty generally, without regard to any monthly rental rate, and would impose a state-mandated local program by applying the existing misdemeanor provisions to the additional reservists. This bill would also provide relief from vehicle leases to members of the National Guard, upon their mobilization for any reason by the federal government.NPU RN0122901N (5) The Personal Income Tax Law and the Bank and Corporation Tax Law authorize various credits against the taxes imposed by those laws. This bill would authorize a credit against those taxes for each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, in an amount equal to 100% of the amount of benefits paid during the taxable year to qualified employees, as defined, who are on active military duty.NPU RN0123573N075 (6) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement. This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason. (7) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute. Vote: 2/3. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: yes.

Preprint A.B. No. 5—John Campbell.

An act to amend Sections 17039, 17501, 17551, 23036, 23701s, and 23705 of, and to add Sections 17053.81, 17053.82, 17085.8, 17144.5, 17205, and 23642.5 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

Bill No.as introduced. John Campbell. General Subject:Personal income and bank and corporations taxes: federal conformity: employee benefits: pensions and deferrals. The Personal Income Tax Law, in partial conformity with federal law, provides tax benefits for contributions to retirement plans, including IRAs. This bill, in conformance with the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001, would expand the tax benefits allowed for contributions to retirement plans. The Personal Income Tax Law and Bank and Corporation Tax Law, in conformity with federal law, provides tax benefits for employers that provide employee pension plans. This bill, in conformance with the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001, would authorize credits for the startup costs of employee pension programs offered by small employers, as defined.022EThis bill would take effect immediately as a tax levy.N (DF 22E, Revised 12/94) PU RN0115831 PU RN0117363 PU RN0124065N Vote: majority.
