Prepared by the Office of the Chief Clerk
General Provisions and Exemptions Relating to Joint Rule 61 Deadlines

1. Bills acted upon by a committee deadline for which amendments are recommended have two legislative days after that deadline during which they may be reported (J.R. 61(c)).
 2. Rules Committees are exempt from these deadlines (J.R. 61(f)).
 3. Bills which are referred to an Assembly committee (pursuant to J.R. 26.5 or A.R. 77.2) are exempt from these deadlines (see also J.R. 61(g), J.R. 61(h)).
 4. Bills related to the budget under subdivision (e) of Section 12 of Article IV of the California Constitution are exempt from these deadlines (J.R. 61(i)).
 5. A policy committee or fiscal committee may meet for the purpose of hearing and reporting a constitutional amendment, or a bill which would go into immediate effect pursuant to Section 8 of Article IV of the California Constitution, at any time other than those periods when no committee may meet for any purpose (J.R. 61(i)).
 6. Joint and Concurrent Resolutions are exempt from these deadlines (J.R. 6).

Sep. 5—In Assembly. Concurrence in Senate amendments pending.

Legislative Counsel's Digest

AB 1027 as amended in Senate August 15, 2023
(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 1027, as it passed the Assembly, required a social media platform to include within its policy statement on controlled substances a general description of the social media platform's policy on the retention of electronic communication information.

The Senate amendments additionally require a social media platform to include a description of the policies and procedures governing when the platform proactively shares relevant information pertaining to the distribution of an illegal substance. The Senate amendments also remove the exemption from these provisions for businesses generating less than $100,000 in gross revenue during the preceding calendar year and require a social media platform to retain content it has taken down or removed for specified policy violations, except when the platform has a good faith belief that the content is related to offering, seeking, or receiving gender-affirming health care.

The Senate amendments also add the distribution of controlled substances to the categories of content that a social media platform is currently required to include in a report submitted to the Attorney General regarding the platform's terms of service.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest

AB 1033 as amended in Senate August 24, 2023
 (Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 1033, as it passed the Assembly, authorized a local agency to adopt a local ordinance to allow the separate conveyance of the primary dwelling unit and an accessory dwelling unit or units as condominiums that includes, among other things, the requirement of a safety inspection of the accessory dwelling unit, as specified, before the recordation of the condominium map. AB 1033, as it passed the Assembly, required written evidence of the lienholder’s consent to be provided to the county recorder, as specified, prior to the recordation of the condominium map. AB 1033, as it passed the Assembly, authorized the lienholder’s consent to be included on the condominium map or separate form that includes specified information. AB 1033, as it passed the Assembly, required the local agency to include specified notice to consumers on any accessory dwelling unit or junior accessory dwelling unit submittal checklist or public information issued describing requirements and permitting for accessory dwelling units, including as standard condition of any accessory dwelling unit building permit or condominium map approval.

The Senate amendments instead require the ordinance to include a safety inspection of the accessory dwelling unit, as described above, before the recordation of the condominium plan. The Senate amendments prohibit the recordation of a subdivision map or a condominium plan with the county recorded, as specified, without each lienholder’s consent, as provided. The Senate amendments instead require written evidence of the lienholder’s consent to be provided to the county recorder, as specified, prior to the recordation of the initial or any subsequent modifications to the condominium plan. The Senate amendments require, rather than authorize, the lienholder's consent to be included on the condominium plan or on a separate form attached to the condominium plan that includes specified information. The Senate amendments additionally require the local government to require the homeowner to notify providers of utilities, as specified, of the condominium creation and separate conveyance if an accessory dwelling unit is established as a condominium. The Senate amendments prohibit the owner of a property or a separate interest within an existing planned development that has an existing association, as defined, from recording a condominium plan to create a common interest development, as specified, without the express written authorization by the existing association, as defined. The Senate amendments also make conforming changes to the contents of the notice to consumers on any accessory dwelling unit or junior accessory dwelling unit submittal checklist or public information issued, as described above. The Senate amendments also make a related statement of legislative findings and declarations and make nonsubstantive double-jointing amendments.

AB 246 as amended in Senate July 10, 2023

(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 246, as it passed the Assembly, made a violation of its provisions punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000 for a first violation and not to exceed $10,000 for each subsequent violation.

The Senate amendments instead make a violation of the bill's provisions punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed $10,000 per day for each violation, as specified.

AB 933 as amended in Senate May 25, 2023

(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 933, as it passed the Assembly, included among privileged communications a communication made by an individual, without malice, regarding an incident of sexual assault, harassment, or discrimination. AB 933 defined “communication” for these purposes to mean factual information related to an incident of sexual assault, harassment, or discrimination experienced by the individual making the communication, including specified instances.

The Senate amendments include in the above-described definition of “communication” an act of harassment or discrimination, or retaliation against a person for reporting harassment or discrimination based on a specified protected class, and an act of cyber sexual bullying, as defined.

AB 957 as amended in Senate August 17, 2023
 (Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 957, as it passed the Assembly, required the court, in civil proceedings for a change of name, to strongly consider a minor's gender identity as being in the best interest of the child if a nonconsenting parent objected to a name change that would conform to the minor's gender identity. AB 957, as it passed the Assembly, also required a court, to consider a parent's affirmation of the child's gender identity when determining the best interests of the child in specified proceedings regarding the custody of a minor child.

The Senate amendments remove the provisions relating to name changes and, in custody proceedings when determining the best interests of the child, require the court to consider a parent's affirmation of the child's gender identity or gender expression as a part of the health, safety, and welfare of the child. The Senate amendments also incorporate additional changes by SB 599, to be operative only if this bill and SB 599 are enacted and this bill is enacted last.

AB 1294 as amended in Senate July 10, 2023
 (Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 1294, as it passed the Assembly, created an exception to tied-house restrictions authorizing specified licensees to sponsor events promoted by, and purchase advertising space and time from or on behalf of, a company that owns a facility that includes a wave basin located in the County of Kings in connection with activities conducted on the premises of a permanent retail licensee located at a wave basin facility, subject to specified requirements. AB 1294, as it passed the Assembly, defined “authorized licensee” for purposes of this exception, to include, among others, a distilled spirits importer, distilled spirits importer general, beer and wine importer general, or out-of-state beer manufacturer certificate holder.

The Senate amendments require, for purposes of the above-described exception, that the wave basin facility has a capacity of at least 9,000 individuals. The Senate amendments expand the definition of “authorized licensee” to include an out-of-state distilled spirits shipper certificate holder and state that an “authorized licensee” does not include any person who holds a distilled spirits importer license or distilled spirits importer general license together with a distilled spirits wholesaler’s license, or any person who holds a beer and wine importer license or beer and wine importer general license together with a beer and wine wholesaler’s license.

AB 1219 as amended in Senate June 12, 2023

(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 1219, as it passed the Assembly, permitted the contents of a ballot to be rendered using visual, auditory, or other methods of presentation, language, or graphics. AB 1219, as it passed the Assembly, permitted ballot presentations to include sheets of paper or an electronic device, and required both to display the same specified information. The bill permitted, but did not require, a printed ballot produced by a ballot marking device to be a list of voter selections or facsimile of a marked preprinted ballot.

The Senate amendments require ballot presentations to include one or more ballot cards, rather than sheets of paper, or an electronic device, both of which must display the same specified information. The Senate amendments permit the ballot card, rather than the ballot, to include visual graphics and instructions. The Senate amendments require the electronic device to be conditionally approved by the Secretary of State and to print the selections made by the voter in the form of a list or facsimile of a marked preprinted ballot.

AB 969 as amended in Senate August 17, 2023
(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 969, as it passed the Assembly, prohibited a county board of supervisors from terminating an existing voting system contract without a transition plan and a replacement contract in place.

The Senate amendments instead require an elections official or the governing body of a jurisdiction that administers elections to use a certified voting system, as specified, and would make the termination of a contract for a certified voting system provisional unless and until the jurisdiction has a transition plan and has finalized and signed a new contract for a certified voting system. The Senate amendments also prohibit an elections official from performing a manual vote count in a semifinal official canvass in any contest held on an established election date, as specified, where there are more than 1,000 registered voters eligible to participate in that election as of 154 days in advance of the election, or in any contest held on a date other than an established election date, where there are more than 5,000 registered voters eligible to participate in that election as of 154 days in advance of the election. The Senate amendments allow an elections official to conduct a manual vote count for a semifinal official canvass in a precinct if the count is conducted pursuant to a plan approved by the Secretary of State, as specified.

AB 546 as amended in Senate August 28, 2023

(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 546, as it passed the Assembly, among other things, expanded the tied-house restriction that prohibits various licensees, or their officer, director, or agent, from paying, crediting, or compensating a retailer or retailers for advertising, display, or distribution service in connection with the advertising and sale of distilled spirits, to apply instead to the advertising and sale of alcoholic beverages.

The Senate amendments include out-of-state beer manufacturer certificate holders and their officers, directors, and agents among the individuals who are subject to the revised tied-house restriction.

AB 546, as it passed the Assembly, expanded a prohibition on the above-described individuals furnishing, giving, lending, or renting to any person any decorations, paintings, or signs, except as specified, to include the furnishing, giving, lending, or renting of other related things of value.

The Senate amendments remove that expansion of the prohibition.

The Senate amendments also prohibit the above-described individuals from, among other things, providing credit or rebating for the privilege of placing or painting a sign or advertisement, floor or window display, on or in any premises selling alcoholic beverages at retail. The Senate amendments also require interior signs advertising beer that are customized for the retailer to be sold by the wholesaler at a price not less than current market price. The Senate amendments also remove a prohibition on a brandy manufacturer licensee giving brandy tastings on their premises in the form of a cocktail or a mixed drink.

(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 676, as it passed the Assembly, revised a declaration that the use of water for domestic purposes is the highest use of water by setting forth illustrative examples of water use for domestic purposes, including water use for the sustenance of human beings and household conveniences and the care of household livestock, animals, and gardens, and deliveries of water by community water systems, other public, municipal, and industrial water agencies, and water corporations regulated by the Public Utilities Commission.

The Senate amendments delete the reference to sustenance of human beings and household conveniences and instead refer to water use for human consumption, cooking, or sanitary purposes. The Senate amendments additionally include water use for fire suppression and other safety purposes, and a purpose determined to be a domestic purpose as established by the common law. The Senate amendments also instead refer to deliveries of water for the purposes listed in the bill by the entities described above.

GOVERNOR'S VETOES

53

A.B. No. 1696—Sanchez.

An act relating to recovery residences.

2023

Jul. 11—Enrolled and presented to the Governor at 3 p.m.

Jul. 21—Vetoed by Governor.

Aug. 14—Consideration of Governor's veto pending. Legislature has 60 calendar days, not including periods of joint recess, to consider Governor's veto (J.R. 58.5). Shall this bill become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1696 without my signature.

This bill would require any privately-owned recovery residence that contracts with a government entity to provide documented policies and procedures related to its operations, code of ethics, and patient access to medications.

Privately-owned recovery residences, as defined by this bill, are not subject to state licensure or certification. Therefore, AB 1696 would conflate requirements in existing law for licensed and certified programs providing substance use disorder recovery services with new requirements for privately-owned recovery residences, which the California Department of Health Care Services does not oversee or enforce. This may create confusion among people seeking recovery services from licensed or certified programs or treatment facilities.

For these reasons, I cannot sign this bill.

Sincerely,

Gavin Newsom

GOVERNOR'S VETOES—Continued

54

A.B. No. 1506—Quirk-Silva.
An act relating to foster youth.

2023

- Jul. 25—Enrolled and presented to the Governor at 4 p.m.
Jul. 27—Vetoed by Governor.
Aug. 14—Consideration of Governor's veto pending. Legislature has 60 calendar days, not including periods of joint recess, to consider Governor's veto (J.R. 58.5). Shall this bill become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1506 without my signature.

This bill adds to the Foster Youth Bill of Rights the requirement that foster youth experiencing a change in their school be provided with the opportunity to return to their prior school during school hours, in a trauma-informed manner, to connect with teachers and classmates.

While I appreciate the author's intent to support foster youth who change schools midyear, AB 1506 creates a new right without setting forth the policies needed to effectuate it. Specifically, this bill does not identify who will be responsible for implementing this new right or set a manner to hold them accountable for failing to meet the requirement.

For this reason, I cannot sign this bill.

Sincerely,

Gavin Newsom
