

CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY JOB LISTINGS

Office: Assembly Republican Caucus, Office of Policy and Budget

Classification: Consultant

Posted: May 11, 2022

The Assembly Republican Caucus Office of Policy and Budget is seeking a talented, dynamic individual to serve as a consultant focusing on both budget and policy. This consultant will staff Republican members on Budget Subcommittee 2 (Education Finance) and the Accountability and Administrative Review Committee. Individuals must be capable of digesting and distilling numerous, complex subjects into a series of cogent analyses and recommendations, and do so under the pressure of tight deadlines and through occasional long hours. Candidates should also be able to thrive in both independent and collaborative work settings, and be flexible enough to cover other issue areas as necessary. Exceptional analytical, verbal, and written communication skills are necessary, as is the ability to think originally and creatively. The ideal candidate will have previous legislative experience or relevant public policy experience in the area of education finance. Salary DOE.

Contact: Interested individuals should send resumes and two writing samples to Sheila.Tabaie@asm.ca.gov.
