AB 2323 as amended in Senate June 11, 2026

(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 2323, as it passed the Assembly, required that any public notice that is legally required to be published in a newspaper of general circulation be published in the newspaper's print publication and on the newspaper's internet website or electronic newspaper available on the internet.

The Senate amendments prohibit a newspaper from charging a fee or surcharge for accessing or posting a public notice on the newspaper's internet website, as specified. The Senate amendments also provide an exception to the required publication of the public notice for errors arising from the internet website operator or an internet website outage or service interruption, as specified.

AB 1651 as amended in Senate June 18, 2026
(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 1651, as it passed the Assembly, required the State Bar to disclose, on its internet website, the use of artificial intelligence-generated content, as defined, in developing or administering the State Bar examinations. The bill further required the State Bar to disclose, on the cover page of study materials, the use of artificial intelligence-generated content in examination study material it, among other things, publishes or endorses.

The Senate amendments limit those disclosures to content developed by or at the explicit direction of the State Bar.

AB 643 as amended in Senate June 3, 2026
(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 643, as it passed the Assembly, authorized a local jurisdiction to count organic material used as a beneficial agricultural amendment towards its recovered organic waste procurement target under specified conditions.

The Senate amendments instead authorize a local jurisdiction to count organic material used as a beneficial agricultural amendment derived from organic waste processed with biosolids towards up to 10% of its recovered organic waste procurement target under specified conditions. The Senate amendments additionally revise the existing authority of a local jurisdiction to count compost produced and procured towards its recovered organic waste procurement target from compost operations composting green material, agricultural material, food material, and vegetative food material by replacing the current limit on the total amount of feedstock and compost onsite of 100 cubic yards and 750 square feet with a new limit of 200 cubic yards, or 500 cubic yards for a composing activity owned by a public agency, and authorize that amount to be increased by regulation, as specified.

Jul. 2—In Assembly. Concurrence in Senate amendments pending.

Legislative Counsel's Digest
AB 2042 as amended in Senate June 10, 2026
(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 2042, as it passed the Assembly, made clarifying and nonsubstantive changes to laws governing the notice, service, and receipt of a complaint and other documents in a civil action. Among these changes, AB 2042 clarified that for "a proof of service filed on or after January 1, 2027," a party that is not served a summons and complaint according to specified methods is authorized to file and serve a motion to set aside or vacate a default or default judgment and for leave to defend the action or for dismissal, as specified.

The Senate amendments would instead clarify that the above provision applies to "service attempted or completed on or after January 1, 2027."

Jul. 2—In Assembly. Concurrence in Senate amendments pending.

Legislative Counsel's Digest

AB 2106 as amended in Senate June 15, 2026

(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 2160, as it passed the Assembly, required an attorney for a plaintiff or cross-complainant in any action arising out of the professional negligence of an architect, landscape architect, professional engineer, or land surveyor to file and serve a certificate declaring either that the attorney has consulted and received an opinion that the action is reasonable and meritorious from an architect, professional engineer, or land surveyor, licensed to practice in this state or in any other state, or that the attorney was unable to obtain that consultation for specified reasons.

The Senate amendments include actions involving professional negligence against a geologist or a geophysicist to the list of those subject to the certificate requirements. The Senate amendments also specify that the amendments apply only to actions filed on or after January 1, 2027.

AB 2134 as amended in Senate June 25, 2026
(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 2134, as it passed the Assembly, prohibited a city from refusing permission for a council member to take absences for parental leave, as defined, and from requiring a council member to request approval for their parental leave at a public hearing, as specified.

The Senate amendments instead require a city to establish a process for a city council member to notify the city clerk or other designated official in writing that they are taking parental leave, as defined, and prohibit the process from requiring a city council member to make that declaration at a public hearing. The Senate amendments also add coauthors.
