Aug. 20—In Assembly. Concurrence in Senate amendments pending.

Legislative Counsel's Digest

AB 501 as amended in Senate June 1, 2026

(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 501, as it passed the Assembly, increased a specified civil penalty, from no more than $5,000 to no more than $15,000, for filing or recording a lawsuit, lien, or other encumbrance against a person or entity knowing it is false, with the intent to harass or hinder that person, as prescribed. AB 501, as it passed the Assembly, also amended the Uniform Commercial Code-Secured Transactions to require the Secretary of State to notify the debtor in a named financing statement within 21 days after the financing statement is filed, required any court fees incurred by a debtor to be paid at the end of the judicial proceeding, and made any party, deemed to have violated the above-described provision regarding lawsuits, liens, or other encumbrances, liable to the debtor for 3 times all of the court fees paid.

The Senate amendments define "lien," for purposes of the above-described prohibition on false filings, to include a financing statement and prohibit a person from filing, or directing another to file, a financing statement for which no reasonable basis or legal cause exists. The Senate amendments, among other changes, also authorize a person identified as a debtor in a financing statement or a person who reasonably appears to be the person intended to be identified as a debtor in a financing statement that was not permitted to be filed, as prescribed, to file an affidavit, under penalty of perjury, attesting as such with the filing office in which the statement was filed, and authorize a secured party of record, identified in a financing statement for which an affidavit has been accepted, to petition the court for certain injunctive and other relief.

(Pursuant to Joint Rule 26.5)

AB 1265, as it passed the Assembly, among other things, allowed a credit against the taxes imposed by the Personal Income Tax Law and the Corporation Tax Law, for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2027, and before January 1, 2031, for the rehabilitation of certified historic structures, as defined. The measure limited the amount of credits that could be allocated in a taxable year based on the amount specified in any bill providing for appropriations related to the Budget Act, as specified.

The Senate amendments instead allow the above-described credit for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2027, and before January 1, 2032. The amendments rephrase the credit limitation to require that the State Office of Historic Preservation and the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee allocate credits in an amount not to exceed the limit determined by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act. The Senate amendments also provide additional criteria to use for determining how the credits are to be allocated.

The Senate amendments instead require a city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, except as specified, to offer a homeowner or a contractor, as described, the option of requesting remote inspections for all or a subset of an inspection required by a building permit for specified works in one- or 2-family dwelling units by either January 1, 2028, or July 1, 2028, as provided.

AB 1738, as it passed the Assembly, authorized these local agencies, at their discretion, to set up a process to perform onsite audits to confirm that a homeowner or contractor accurately represented the work subject to the remote inspection.

AB 1793, as it passed the Assembly, required a merchant, for a transaction paid with legal tender, to determine the total price of goods or services by rounding to the nearest amount divisible by 5, as specified. AB 1793, as it passed the Assembly, among other things, defined various terms, and authorized the Treasurer to promulgate regulations to implement the bill's provisions, including regulating exemptions or exclusions from the bill's requirements.

The Senate amendments, instead, require a merchant, for a portion of the total transaction price paid with legal tender, as defined, to determine the total transaction price of goods or services by rounding to the nearest amount of cents divisible by 5, as provided. The Senate amendments, instead, modify definitions and define additional terms for purposes of the bill. The Senate amendments, among other changes, instead, require any rounding adjustment to be disregarded for the purposes of the computation of any applicable tax, fee, or surcharge, tax, fee, or surcharge reimbursement, or the measure thereof, and authorize the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration to promulgate regulations to implement this requirement. The Senate amendments prohibit a person from collecting from a purchaser an amount greater than the amount permitted under those provisions and subject a violation of this prohibition to the same remedies as the prohibition against overcharging for a commodity, as provided. By expanding a crime, the Senate amendments impose a state-mandated local program.
