

CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY JOB LISTINGS

Office: Assemblymember Kansen Chu

Classification: Intern

Posted: November 28, 2018

The Office of Assemblymember Kansen Chu seeks Capitol Interns. The Office of Assemblymember Kansen Chu is looking for interns eager to learn about the legislative process and California policy. Candidates should be hard working, ready to work in a fast-paced environment and possess apt communication skills to work well with constituents, staff and advocates. This internship is a great opportunity to gain mentorship and applicable skills in California policymaking. Duties may include answering phone calls and greeting office guests, drafting letters to constituents, assisting with preparing materials for the Assemblymember for committee and floor votes, and conducting research for the office. The ideal candidate will be able to commit to 20 hours a week.

Contact: To apply, please send resume and cover letter to Katelin Van Deynze at Katelin.vandeynze@asm.ca.gov.