

CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY JOB LISTINGS

Office: Assemblymember Essayli
Classification: Legislative Director
Posted: January 23, 2023

The Office of Assemblyman Bill Essayli is accepting applications for a Legislative Director. Responsibilities include overseeing the day-to-day responsibilities of the legislative staff, developing, drafting, and staffing Member's legislation, briefing the member on pending legislation in committees and on the Floor, and preparing background materials and talking points. Ideal candidates will possess excellent written and verbal communication skills, be detail-orientated, and be able to handle multiple projects. Prior legislative experience required.

The Assembly salary range for the classification of Legislative Director is $53,412.00 - $124,656, annually. The successful candidate's salary for this position is anticipated to be established between $53,412.00 - $79,200.00, annually.

Contact: Please email resume and at least one legislative writing sample to Chief of Staff, Shawn Lewis, at Shawn.Lewis@asm.ca.gov.