

CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY JOB LISTING

Office: Assemblymember Bryan

Classification: Legislative Director

Posted: February 13, 2023

Monthly Salary Range: $4,451 to $10,388

Assemblymember Isaac G. Bryan is seeking a Legislative Director. Under the supervision of the Assemblymember and Chief of Staff, the Legislative Director is in charge of effectively navigating the legislative process to ensure the successful passage of the Assemblymember's legislation. The Legislative Director oversees the legislative team, provides effective and strategic direction to staff, tracks and monitors critical deadlines, and provides cogent vote recommendations to the member and Chief of Staff. The Legislative Director is also in charge of developing fact sheets, drafting committee and floor statements, and other duties as assigned. The ability to multitask, navigate complicated policy, and express sound political judgement is required. A strong team ethos, a commitment to justice and equity, and a desire to mentor and uplift the next generation of legislation and policy leaders while working in a fast-paced office is essential. A successful candidate will have demonstrated experience working on legislation.
