CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY
JOB LISTINGS

Office: Assembly Committee on Transportation
Classification: Committee Staff Director
Posted: October 28, 2026

The California State Assembly Committee on Transportation seeks an experienced policy leader to serve as its Committee Staff Director, directing the Committee's staff and advising Assembly members on a wide range of issues, including: high-speed rail, highways and airports, transportation financing, driver licenses, mass transit systems, vehicle weight restrictions, mobile sources of air pollution and more.

The Committee Staff Director directs, coordinates, and supervises the Committee's daily and long-term operations. As the Committee's lead staff expert, the Committee Staff Director prepares and oversees expert analysis of transportation legislation and advises the Chair, Assembly members, and staff; analyzes proposed legislation; reviews the quality of other consultants' work; negotiates bill amendments; staffs bills within the Committee's jurisdiction on behalf of the Chair; plans informational and oversight hearings; and supervises the committee staff.

Strong management, communication, research, and writing skills are required. The ideal candidate also has meaningful legislative experience, is adept at critical thinking and independent research, and has the ability to succeed in a fast-paced and high-pressure work environment.

The salary range for this position is $12,500 - $22,609 per month. It is anticipated that the position will be filled in the range of $12,500 - $15,500 per month unless the candidate has significant legislative experience.

Contact: Submit a cover letter describing your interest and relevant transportation policy experience and a current resume. Send cover letter and resume to Elvia.Diaz@asm.ca.gov with "Committee Staff Director – Transportation" in the subject line.