

CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY JOB LISTINGS

Office: Assemblymember Josh Lowenthal

Classification: Field Representative

Posted: January 29, 2025

Assemblymember Lowenthal is seeking a Field Representative to serve in the Long Beach office. Under the direction of the Member and District Director, the Field Representative acts within the district as an official representative and liaison of the Member and works with District Director to implement external communication strategies.

Key responsibilities include but are not limited to acting as the Member's representative by responding to a variety of constituent inquiries and problems, including professional, interpersonal communications, and responses to telephone calls and mail. Attending local government, community, and private interest group meetings; producing reports describing key issues discussed. Making presentations at events on behalf of the Member. Serves as a liaison between the district and the Member by maintaining an awareness of, and involvement in, district affairs and issues, and reports to the Member as appropriate. Coordinates office procedures, routine correspondence, telephone inquiries, events, and special projects. Assists in the research, public discussion, and drafting of legislation and amendments. Complies with Assembly policies and rules as outlined in the Personnel Policy Manual. Communications duties include: managing media relations and outreach, drafting press communication and helping implement the Member's social media strategy. Must also be able to work extended hours, including some nights and weekends as required.

The Assembly salary range for this position is $5,417 - $7,845 monthly. Final compensation is commensurate with experience. Significant relevant experience is required to reach the higher end of the salary range. Current Assembly employees of non-returning offices are encouraged to apply.
