

CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY JOB LISTINGS

Office: Assemblymember Dr. Sharp-Collins

Classification: Field Representative

Posted: October 27, 2026

Assemblywoman Dr. Sharp-Collins is seeking a Field Representative for her District Office in San Diego. Under the direct supervision of the District Director and Chief of Staff, the primary responsibilities will include serving as a liaison between the district and the Assemblywoman by maintaining an awareness of and involvement in district affairs and issues. Candidates will be expected to establish positive and productive relationships with local organizations, elected officials, key community stakeholders, policymakers, and the general public. Other responsibilities include constituent casework, correspondence, and outreach. Under the direction of the District Director, the Field Representative will be responsible for representing the Assemblywoman in the community, drafting talking points, making presentations on her behalf, and staffing the Assemblywoman at community events. The ideal candidate is required to have excellent reading, writing and communication skills, as well as the ability to manage multiple concurrent projects.

Candidates must have a reliable source of transportation to attend in-person meetings and events, the ability to assist with setting up tables, the office canopy, and other equipment for events, and be able to work a flexible schedule, including evenings and weekends as required.

The salary range for this position is $5,417 - $8,322 per month. It is anticipated that the position will be filled at the start of the range.
