

CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY JOB LISTINGS

Office: Assemblymember Jesse Gabriel

Classification: Legislative Assistant (Communications)

Posted: June 11, 2025

Assemblymember Jesse Gabriel is seeking a Legislative Assistant (Communications) to work in the Capitol Office. Responsibilities include managing communications with media outlets, constituents, and the general public about the Assemblymember's legislative, budget, and district priorities as well as the work of the Assembly Budget committee. Other duties include preparing press materials, op-eds, social media content, and talking points.

Candidates should have media experience, experience managing social media platforms, and strong writing skills. They will need to be able to work independently and also thrive in a fast-paced, collaborative team environment. An ideal candidate would have established relationships with industry related media contacts and previous communications experience.

The position will require some travel to the district for major press activities, such as press conferences and other events requiring press or media support. Bilingual/Spanish skills are a plus. The Assembly salary range is between $5,417 to $7,845 per month.
