

CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY JOB LISTINGS

Office: Elections and Judiciary Committees Assembly Republican Caucus

Classification: Policy Consultant

Posted: November 17, 2025

Position Summary:

The Assembly Republican Caucus Office of Policy and Budget is seeking a talented, dynamic individual to serve as a Senior/Principal consultant focusing primarily on the Elections and Judiciary committees.

Primary Responsibilities:

This individual will be capable of digesting and distilling numerous, complex subjects into a series of cogent analyses and recommendations, and doing so under the pressure of tight deadlines and through occasional long hours. Candidates should be capable of thriving in both independent and collaborative work settings, and flexible enough to cover other issue areas as necessary.

Qualifications:

- Exceptional analytical, verbal, and written communication skills are a must, as is the ability to think originally and creatively.
- Applicants must possess a Juris Doctor degree from an accredited institution. An active member of the State Bar of California is strongly preferred.
- Applicants should have at least five years' experience in the Legislature or relevant public policy experience.

Compensation:

- The Assembly salary range for the classification of Senior Consultant is between $6,231 and $14,450 monthly.
- The Assembly salary range for the classification of Principal Consultant is between $8,032 and $18,236 monthly.

Contact: Interested individuals should send resume and two writing samples to Sheila.Tabaie@asm.ca.gov. No phone calls or walk-ins, please.
