CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY
JOB LISTINGS

Office: Assemblymember Jessica Caloza
Classification: Student Intern (Paid)
Posted: November 5, 2026
Location: District Office, Los Angeles, CA

Assemblymember Jessica Caloza is seeking a paid intern to join her District office in Los Angeles. Under the direction of the Chief of Staff and District Director, the intern will have the opportunity to learn about the operations of a District office, including assisting with general administrative tasks, legislative research, exposure to the legislative process, and working in coordination with the team on various projects.

Eligible candidates should be college students or recent college graduates interested in public service and state government, have knowledge of state issues, and have an interest in learning about the legislative process and how state government can serve constituents.

Candidates must possess strong written and oral communication skills, work well in a fast-paced team environment, and be proficient in Microsoft Word and general office tasks.

The internship term is up to 4 months, and the ideal candidate will be able to work up to 35 hours per week, 7 hours per day. The compensation for the paid internship is $20 per hour and is not eligible for benefits. This position is in the office and is non-remote.
